

Create your own Adventure Experiential Learning & Future NB

Note that Design-Your-Own Internships through Future NB are paid as a grant.

Funding Available

Wage Subsidies – Future NB can provide up to 100%¹ wage subsidies for approved experiential opportunities. These funds will be distributed directly to the employer/partner, who will place the student on their organization's payroll.

Project Funding – If your experience is a self-directed project at a host organization, we can pay lump sum project funding directly to the student.²

What's the catch?

We do want to ensure that this opportunity is experiential learning, so you will have to participate in the program fully. This means that students will:

- Attend an internship orientation/training
- Set learning goals to target the competencies that you want to develop
- Provide a final reflection/report
- Participate in meetings, surveys, reflective submissions as required.

I want to apply for Experiential Learning Funding through Future NB!

Completed applications can be emailed to careers@mta.ca.

Application deadline (for fall 2021 internships): September 12, 2021

¹ Non-profit and small- & medium- businesses (defined as having fewer than 50 employees) may qualify for up to 100% wage subsidies..

² The project must take place off campus and under the supervision of the host organization. A faculty member may co-supervise to ensure that learning outcomes are being met.
