

MOUNT ALLISON THESIS LICENCE AGREEMENT

Note: This will replace the former Library Authorization form.

In consideration of Mount Allison University ("Mount Allison") agreeing to publish your thesis (the "Thesis"), for which the degree is established below in electronic format:

1. You hereby grant to Mount Allison a non-exclusive, worldwide, irrevocable, royalty-free licence to reproduce, convert, publish, archive, communicate and distribute the Thesis, including descriptive information, metadata and the Thesis abstract, in any format and in any medium for non-commercial purposes for the full term of the copyright, including but not limited to the right to:
 - a. transmit the Thesis to the public by telecommunication, including via the Internet and facsimile transmission;
 - b. publish the Thesis electronically on the Internet;
 - c. distribute the Thesis through the library, interlibrary and public loan;
 - d. digitize, photocopy and/or microfiche the Thesis; and
 - e. sub-liscence or assign any of the rights granted above or otherwise authorize third parties to perform such acts on Mount Allison's behalf.
2. You confirm the following statements to be true and accurate:
 - a. you have the right and authority to grant the rights set out in this licence;
 - b. the Thesis is your original work and is an unchanged copy of the final version approved by your review committee;
 - c. the Thesis does not infringe the copyright or other intellectual property rights of any other person;
 - d. if the Thesis contains material to which you do not hold copyright and is not in the public domain, then one or both of the following apply (in addition to the material being clearly and appropriately identified and acknowledged):
 - i. each use of such copyrighted material complies with the "fair dealing" provisions of the Copyright Act (Canada); and
 - ii. you have obtained and retained in your files a copy of the written permission of the copyright owner(s) to include the work (or part thereof, as the case may be) in your Thesis and to grant to Mount Allison the rights set out in this licence;

- e. the Thesis does not contain any confidential or proprietary information belonging to others, other than information included under Section 2 subsection d, ii;
- f. the Thesis does not contain any libelous or other unlawful matter and does not invade the privacy of any person(s);
- g. there are no unexpired publication delays on the distribution of the Thesis; and
- h. the information you provide herein about the Thesis is accurate.

3. By signing this agreement you acknowledge and are aware that you retain your copyright ownership and moral rights in the Thesis, and may deal with the copyright in the Thesis in any way consistent with rights granted to Mount Allison in this licence. You promise to inform any person to whom you may hereafter assign or licence the copyright in the Thesis of the rights granted to Mount Allison in this licence. You agree that Mount Allison is not responsible for any misuse of the Thesis by third parties who access the Thesis through Mount Allison's facilities.

4. Normally the Library will catalogue a thesis and make it available to the public via the online catalogue after receipt. However, in some circumstances such immediate release might have harmful results for the author. In such cases the author may request that the Library withhold it from public distribution for a period up to three years. Valid reasons for such a request include a pending patent application that might be harmed by release of information or expected publication of results in a journal. If such request is made, the Library will indicate in its cataloguing record the date upon which the restriction will be lifted and no access will be allowed before that date without permission.

Therefore, all students submitting a thesis must choose one of the following options. If this form is not completed the University will assume that there is no restriction.

I hereby authorize the making of copies of this thesis:

- without restriction
- with the restriction that until _____ Department approval is required (maximum period: three years from date of completion)
- with the restriction that until _____ the written approval of the author is required (maximum period three years from date of completion)

5. This agreement once signed is irrevocable.
