Bouhlel Family — Rami ('23) and Rayan ('15), Tunisia

A degree from Mount Allison will take you places! Just ask Johnny — he graduated with a Bachelor of Science in chemistry and went on to complete a PhD in chemistry at the University of Toronto.

After spending time as a researcher, he now works as a technical sales specialist for a chromatography instrument, which is used in pharmaceutical research.

“I had the opportunity to work with professors during the summer, which helped me understand what a research career looks like and prepared me for my PhD. I am still using things I learned in chemistry at Mount Allison in my current job.”

SMALL CLASS SIZES

BUILD BONDS IN THE CLASSROOM

GET TO KNOW YOUR PROFESSORS, FELLOW STUDENTS, AND YOURSELF IN CLASSROOMS BUILT FOR CONNECTION

With roughly 2,400 students, an average first-year class size of 60, and upper year classes as small as three, the small class difference can be found across campus. That means you have the space to collaborate, the confidence to ask questions, and the freedom to share your ideas.

MTA.CA/SMALLCLASS

You will be able to connect easily with your professors — who are leaders in their fields — both inside and outside the classroom. These meaningful interactions will connect you to valuable networking opportunities, guide you throughout your degree, and help you figure out what you want to do next.

“The close connections with my professors had the greatest impact on my academic and personal journey.”

PUT YOUR IDEAS AND SKILLS TO THE TEST IN A REAL-WORLD SETTING

Experiential learning — or hands-on learning — is a core element of a Mount Allison education. There are opportunities for you to create experiences that match your interests and style of learning. You will develop skills that will prepare you for the workforce, make important networking connections, and help you figure out what’s next after Mount Allison.

MTA.CA/EXPERIENTIAL

Commerce Trip to Toronto

PAID INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Mount Allison offers exceptional opportunities to join businesses and organizations locally and internationally for paid internships that will allow you to gain hands-on experiences during your degree. Internships are open to students from all disciplines and academic years. Internship opportunities are available part-time during the academic year and full-time in the summer.

OTHER TYPES OF EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING AT MOUNT ALLISON:

- Student research
- Student conferences
- Recitals, theatre performances, and art exhibits
- Academic and case competitions
- Peer tutoring and teaching assistantships
- Field work and travel
- Special topics or independent study
- Community engagement with local schools and programs

“Getting involved in the internship and entrepreneurship programs helped me discover how much I enjoy building things from the ground up. It’s been exciting to take risks, learn from mistakes, and grow in a space that encourages creativity, independence, and impact.”
