Summer Artist and Community Outreach Coordinator

Friends of Fundy/ Fundy Guild Inc.

May-August

35 hours/week

$14/hour

The 'Friends of Fundy', incorporated as the Fundy Guild, is a non-profit charitable social enterprise that works to increase public awareness and enjoyment of the natural and cultural heritage of Fundy National Park and its surrounding communities. As the official 'Friends' of the Park, we support meaningful visitor experiences that contribute to the region's conservation and sustainable development goals.

Our summer intern(s) will be involved in many aspects of the organization's projects and goals. We are looking for a student with a desire to work in an inspiring and supportive environment. Projects over the summer may vary depending on the interests and skills of the intern. We're looking for a great fit, rather than a specific type of student.

Areas of focus:

- Creating and co-hosting gallery/exhibition space with our community partners.
- Amplifying messaging on environmental stewardship and appreciation in Fundy National Park and surrounding area through art.
- Researching the offerings in the area and infusing art and creative thinking into existing activities, events and programs.
- Engaging with visitors and local community members, sharing your passion and knowledge.
- Making art!

Skills & Qualifications

- Studying Fine Arts
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to work independently, taking an idea and running with it
- Ability to design and deliver 'workshop' experiences
- Community builder, someone who wants to develop strong ties with the arts & culture community in the area and share it with visitors
- Creative doer!

Work hours and Compensation:

- Weekend and evening work is common during July and August months
- Position requires access to transportation
- Position is located in Alma NB
